The second annual “In Centro” conference was held by the Central Region of Israel Antiquities Authority, the Department of Archaeology and Near Eastern Cultures and the Sonia and Marco Nadler Institute of Archaeology of Tel Aviv University on May 29, 2019 at Tel Aviv University. It was dedicated to the theme of “Memory” and its archaeological expression, as may be found in matter, space and location in early periods, in the intentional choice of past artifacts, and in the memory of sites in the landscape that persisted for centuries and millennia. This proceedings volume consists of nine papers: six in English and three in Hebrew.
