The Israeli Inter-University Academic Partnership
in Russian and East European Studies

The Stephen Roth Institute for the Study of Contemporary Antisemitism and Racism, Tel Aviv University

Are pleased to invite you to a joint symposium with the participation of:

Theodore R. Weeks, Southern Illinois University

Jews between Poles and Lithuanians 1918-1922

Prof. Week's interests focus on Nationality, Ethnicity and Minority Nationalities in East-Central Europe, the Russian Empire, and the USSR. He is the author of From Assimilation to Antisemitism: The "Jewish Question" in Poland, 1850 – 1914 (2003) and Nation and State in Late Imperial Russia: Nationalism and Russification on Russia's Western Frontier 1863-1914 (1996). He is presently working on a history of Vilnius, Lithuania's present-day capital, as a multi-ethnic city from 1795 to 2000.

Prof. Brian Horowitz, Tulane University

Jabotinsky as a Russian Intellectual

Prof. Horowitz specializes in East European Jewish Literature and History. He is the author of Jewish Philanthropy and Enlightenment in Late-Tsarist Russia, (2009); Empire Jews: Jewish Nationalism and Acculturation in Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century Russia (2009) and The Myth of A. S. Pushkin in Russia's Silver Age (1996). His current research focuses on the Russian intelligentsia in late czarist Russia.
